Joseph H. Broderick.

JOSEPH H. BRODERICK was born Sept. 11, 1855, in this city. He is the son of Michael and Hannah Broderick. After a public school course Mr. Broderick learned the trade of boiler maker, at which he worked for sixteen years. In 1884 he began the manufacture of cigars, and in that business he has attained a flattering success. He is a member of the Bachelors' Club and the Catholic Benevolent Legion. Mr. Broderick's wife, Miss Mary Conway, died Sept. 13, 1888. He has one child, a boy. Mr. Broderick is essentially a business man. His social position is high, and his future is bright with promise.
