Henry A. Conway.

HENRY A. CONWAY was born in this city August 8, 1859, the son of John and Mary Conway. He was educated at St. Peter's Parochial School, and then entered the employ of John Skellie, retail liquor dealer, at No. 6 State Street. Five years later Mr. Conway succeeded to the business. He has never held political position, his taste not running in that direction. He is a member of the Robert Emmet Association, the Bachelors' Club and the Y. M. C. L. A. A few years ago Mr. Conway sold out his State Street business to his brother, William, and associating himself with his brother, Daniel E., and the late Congressman Nicholas T. Kane, purchased the old Sands brewery property on North Fourth Street, and has since been engaged in the brewing of ales and porters. The firm of Conway Bros. & Kane rates high and is considered one of the leading brewing concerns of the country. Mr. Conway's wife was Miss Teresa Healey, the accomplished niece of the late Congressman Kane. Mr. and Mrs. Conway have one child, a boy.
