James C. Minahan.

JAMES C. MINAHAN was born in this city August 21, 1857, the son of John and Mary Minahan. He was educated in the public schools. On October 3, 1869, he began work as a messenger boy in the office of the Western Union Company and speedily learned the trade of telegraph operator, at which he became remarkably expert. He managed the Baltimore & Ohio and Mutual Union offices in this city, and had the confidence of these great corporations. Among operators Mr. Minahan was recognized as one of the best in the country. He has made a special study of electrical science, and at present is assistant manager of the Troy Electric Light Company. He is a leading member of the Bachelors' Club. Mr. Minahan was married October 24, 1888, to Miss Margaret English, daughter of John English.
